

Register NOW for MudSport 2016!

by Southeast Health Group

MudSport 2016 will be held on Saturday, April 23rd, with a 9 AM start time. “We’re planning for 300 runners this year,” said Barry Shiohita, event organizer. “The first 300 to register will get a T-shirt and goodie bag.” The 3.3 mile course goes from 711 Barnes Avenue through the Anderson arroyo to the Arkansas River and back. Runners will encounter various obstacles along the way and should plan to get muddy!

The early entry fees for the competitive event are $15 for ages 12 and under, and $30 for ages 13 to adult. Prices go up to $20/$35 after April 11. There are three categories: the Micro-Mudder is for the little tykes; the Mini-Mudder is a shorter 0.6 mile course; and the Main-Mudder is the full 3.3 mile course. All finishers will receive a medal.

This year’s event will again feature a Corporate Challenge trophy, which was won last year by a team from Oliver Manufacturing. Teams of six people can register under a team name, and will compete in a separate heat from the other runners on the full course. The fee for a six-person Corporate Challenge team is $150. The winning team holds bragging rights for one full year.

Event sponsors currently include Southeast Health Group, Otero Junior College, La Junta Tribune-Democrat, City of La Junta, and H.W. Houston Construction Co.

Registered runners can pick up their bag the night before the event from 5:00-6:30 PM.
